Tonight, each person in attendance introduced themselves and then provided the name of their most favorite food eaten at Thanksgiving time.

- Sign up sheets are at the front table. To attend you must have already turned in your completed registration form for the new year or you will be required to register and pay the dues at the Bowling Party.
 - Carol provided us with some examples of the different games that would be played at the stadium. It is still questionable if Lee Blasquez will be giving Skipping Lessons to others that evening.
 - Rich Crombie will be the Emcee for the evening
 - Carol reminded all of us to please call into the office to R.S.V.P. for any and all parties if you plan on attending the event and the number of people you are bringing to sign up as a new member(s). This party night requires that you have already registered and paid the dues or will be paying that evening before the event begins. We are requesting that everyone bring a non-perishable food item(s) that will be donated to a local service group.
